

Canal Point Baptists And Methodists Plan Joint Thanksgiving Service 9 a.m. Thursday

The annual Thanksgiving service of fellow community citizens at which time all men come to give thanks for the heritage of freedom, speech, life and separation from hunger and want, will be held Thursday, November 25, in the Canal Point Baptist Church.

When our sons and brothers are fighting in far off lands, when the heritage we hold dear is decaying before our very eyes, when the very principles for which the founders of our country and patriots fought, suffered privation, lived and died to establish, are fast slipping into oblivion, is it not time that we should assemble in the place where they found strength and hope that we, too, might find reason to take up the fight?

The pilgrims had but five grains of corn to share on that first Thanksgiving. We, in our abundance, can surely come to give thanks much as they did and renew our vows to God, country and liberty.

Rev. Edward Norton, pastor of the Canal Point Methodist Church, will speak in "Keeping the Thanks in Thanksgiving." The Canal Point Baptist choir will sing "Serve the Lord with Gladness" and other traditional Thanksgiving music. The service will begin at 9:00 a.m. and will last approximately 45 minutes. This is for all peoples of all faiths to come together as brothers.

CIRCULATING THROUGHOUT THE VAST AGRICULTURAL AREA OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

Vegetable Market Steady And Price Is Profitable

The winter vegetable market in the Glades section of Palm Beach County is holding steady this week and prices are satisfactory — although not as high as they have been or will be at future times. When the Glades growers can make a reasonable profit on their commodities, you don't hear much grumbling out of them. It's when the prices hit rock bottom that they really gripe.

The demand for celery this week has been moderate and the prices have ranged from $3.50 down to $3.00. The demand is good for sweet corn and the price has been steady at $2.50 for fancy offerings.

A few cukes have been moving and the demand has been very good with the market firm at $2.50 to $2.75 per bushel crate. The market is good and the demand steady for radishes at 90c.

A few beans have been moving this week and the price has been good. Some fair quality sold for $3.50 while some fancies brought the grower $4.00 per bushel.

Lions Change Mind Again, Shoot Plan Friday, Sat., Mon.

This time for sure — maybe — the Canal Point Lions have set a date for their annual Turkey Shoot to raise money to assist in buying eye glasses for the unfortunate who cannot afford to buy them. Two different dates have been announced by different members of the club. Now comes what appears to be the official date.

Friday, Saturday and Monday, November 19, 20 and 22, are the new dates and officials of the club extend a cordial invitation to each and every person who wants a turkey for Thanksgiving dinner to come by and invest a few cents in an effort to carry one home as a result of his expert marksmanship.

The shoot will be held on the Lake side of the levee where it has been held during the past years. Through the years the local Lions Club has bought eye glasses for those unfortunate folks who can't afford them financially, and local folks have given the club unusually good support in their civic efforts. The Turkey Shoot will make some money and it will go for a good cause. Support it.

U. S. Savings Bonds when there are so many other good investments?

To help your country is one answer—and a good one.

But Bonds have other advantages that make them worth your consideration.

For instance, they offer you just about the easiest way to save money: either with the Payroll Savings Plan where you just ask your employer to put part of your wages aside toward a Bond or through regular purchase of Bonds at your bank.

Another unique advantage of U. S. Savings Bonds is the way they stick with you. You can get your money any time.

But if you're like most people, you'll hang on to your Savings Bonds for the big things you want in your future.

And, of course, Bonds are a safe investment—as long as there's a United States of America.

Which brings us back to your country again. Bonds help defend freedom at a time when the enemies of freedom are stronger than ever.

Buy Savings Bonds. The banks or savings institutions that sell them don't charge you a penny for the service

Keep freedom in your future with

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

The U.S. Government does not pay for this advertising. The Treasury Department thanks The Advertising Council and this publication for their patriotic support.

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to $2\frac{3}{4}\%$ for the first year and a half, then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra $\frac{1}{2}\%$ from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic $\frac{1}{2}\%$ increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

YOU SAVE MORE THAN MONEY WITH U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

A message from the Treasury of a free people

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

Flow Of Tourists Perked Up By State Development Com.

TLLAHASSEE—The people of Florida have an easy job when it comes to selling the Sunshine State to tourists. Florida has more to offer than any other state with its many miles of bright sandy beaches, historical background, interesting attractions and natural beauty.

"The Florida Development Commission holds the main responsibility for keeping the flow of tourists to the state," commented Roger Stake, commission director, recently, "but it alone cannot do the best job without the complete co-operation of the chambers of commerce, the attraction proprietors and the people themselves."

Every one in the state, depends on the tourists to a certain extent because they pour over $2.5 billion into the economy annually, Stake explained. Taxes on these dollars build schools, roads and other necessary items that the citizens depends on from the tax dollar.

Two Initiated Into Rainbow Girls

Miss Beverly Wilkinson and Miss Ellen Graydon were initiated into the Order of Rainbow for Girls at the regular meeting of the Pahokee Assembly No. 16 in the Masonic Hall Monday night, with Miss Lodus Gray, worthy advisor, and her staff of officers in charge of the initiatory rites.

It was announced that Rainbow Girls will be honored at the meeting of Pahokee Chapter 184, Order of Eastern Star, Thursday night, December 2; also that the Rainbow Girls and their boy friends were invited to attend the old-fashioned box supper that was held by the Pahokee OES Chapter 184 in the Community Building in Canal Point on Thursday evening, November 18.

Miss Lodus Gray gave a report on Rally Day at the Masonic Home in St. Petersburg, which she attended on Sunday.

A committee was named to be in charge of planning for the annual Rainbow Christmas party. It was voted that instead of exchanging gifts at the party, each member will bring a gift for residents at the Masonic Home in St. Petersburg.

The Order's official newspaper, "Rainbow Notes of the Grand Assembly," was on sale at the meeting by Miss Ralena Ursry, and coins collected from the assembly's Wishing Well to be sent to the Masonic Home.

36 Witnesses At Vero Beach Meet

A delegation of 36 from Belle Glade area is making plans to attend a three-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses, November 26-28 at Vero Beach, according to Miles Crum, presiding minister of the local group.

"At the recent kick-off meeting," Crum said, "23 departments were formed to handle an estimated 1,000 delegates at the Vero Beach Junior High School, the assembly site. These include Rooming, Information, Ushers and First Aid.

"The theme of the seminar in Vero Beach," Crum added, "will be directed toward fulfilling our ministry. I think great stress will be focused upon increased study of the Bible and greater appreciation of its message for today."

Among those attending from this area will be Nancy Geiger and family of East Main Street, Pahokee.

The principal address of the conference will be delivered Sunday afternoon by Joseph Saia, District Director of the Southeastern U. S. He will speak on the subject "What Does the Resurrection of the Dead Mean to You and Yours?" Saia is a traveling representative and full-time minister of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York.

During the weekend of the assembly, all meetings at the local Kingdom Hall in Belle Glade will be cancelled.
